

MONTRÉAL INTERNATIONAL FORUM

F I M

FORO INTERNACIONAL DE MONTRÉAL

FORUM INTERNATIONAL DE MONTRÉAL

Global Democracy: Civil Society Visions and Strategies (G05)

(May 29-June 1, 2005, Montréal, Québec)

Conference Report

Table of Contents

Introduction.....	i
Part 1: Opening Plenary Sessions	1
Welcome	1
Lynn Muthoni Wanyeki.....	1
Nigel Martin.....	1
Rajesh Tandon	2
Opening Panel.....	3
Key Visions and Questions on How to Advance Global Democracy	3
1) Empowering a Democratic Civil Society: The World Social Forum (WSF) and Other Major Civil Society Initiatives.....	4
2) Democratizing the Global Economy and Global Governance: Rethinking the Roles of Multilateral Institutions, Rules, and Key Actors at the Global Level	5
3) Realizing the Democratic Potential of Parliamentary Initiatives: National, Regional, and Global Possibilities.....	6
4) Building Democratic Linkages at the Local, National, Regional, and Global Levels: Identifying Strategic Possibilities for Responsive Democratic Governance	7
Parallel Fora: Building Strategies to Achieve Key Civil Society Visions of Global Democracy	7
1) Empowering a Democratic Global Civil Society: The World Social Forum and Other Major Civil Society Initiatives.....	7
2) Democratizing the Global Economy and Global Governance: Rethinking the Roles of Multilateral Institutions, Rules, and Key Actors at the Global Level	10
3) Realizing the Democratic Potential of Parliamentary Initiatives: National, Regional, and Global Possibilities.....	13
4) Building Democratic Linkages at the Local, National, Regional, and Global Levels: Identifying Strategic Possibilities for Responsive Democratic Governance	16
Welcome Reception	19
Dialogue with the United Nations.....	20
Part II: Thematic Summary of Conference Tracks	24
Track 1: Civil Society Engagement: Changing Territorial Priorities?.....	24
Diverse Experiences.....	25
New Avenues for Civil Society Within the Framework of Regional Blocks	26
Regional Integration Strategies.....	27
Knowledge-Sharing Strategies.....	29
Other Strategies.....	31
Track 2: International Treaties/International Law: A Hierarchy of Values?	34
Accountability.....	34
Fundamental Conflicts	35
Compliance, Enforcement, and Legal Challenges	36
Marriage to Other Movements.....	38

Shifting the Balance of Power	38
The Importance of the Citizen	39
Loss of State Power	40
Big Bad Corporations?.....	42
Alternative International Bodies	42
Summary of Successes.....	42
Track 3: Global Security: Undermining Democracy?	43
Discussion	44
Strategic Proposal #1: Establish an International Reconciliation Commission on Terrorism.....	45
Strategic Proposal #2: Establish a New Partnership between the Military and Civil Society.....	47
Strategic Proposal #3: Make the UN More Transparent and Accountable to Citizens	48
Strategic Proposal #4: Focus civil society efforts on increasing democracy at local levels	49
Track 4: Civil Society Participation; Opportunities and Responsibilities	51
Making International Institutions Accountable	52
The Cardoso Panel: A Time for Damage Control?.....	53
Inside and Outside: Preparing for September	53
A World Parliament	54
A Hierarchy of Values	54
Closing the Loop on Citizen Engagement	55
Community Capacity to Engage on Global Governance	56
Partnerships Across Civil Society.....	57
Accountability and Transparency Within Civil Society	58
Track 5 : How to Democratically Regulate the Global Economy?	59
Discussion	60
Debt.....	62
International Financial Institutions	62
Corporate Social Responsibility	63
Trade	64
Sustainable Development.....	64
Financial Flows	65
Summary	66
Track 6: Cultural Diversity—Maintaining Cultural Diversity in Global Solidarity?	67
The Threat to Cultural Diversity	68
Cultural Sustainability, Especially in Relation to Indigenous Cultures.....	69
Linguistic Diversity	70
The Role of the Media, Especially “Pro-People” Media	72
Pros and Cons of Globalization for Culture and Cultural Diversity	73
Three key recommendations:	74
Twelve Most Relevant Civil Society Proposals for Building Global Democracy.....	74
Track 1: Civil Society Engagement; Changing Territorial Priorities	74
Track 2: International Treaties, International Law; A Hierarchy of Values?	74
Track 3: Global Security—Undermining Democracy?	75
Track 4: Civil Society Participation; Opportunities and Responsibilities	75

Track 5: How to Democratically Regulate the Global Economy?	75
Track 6: How to Maintain Cultural Diversity in Global Solidarity?	76
Discussion	76
Part III: Self-Organized Workshops	78
Workshop 1	78
A World Constitution: An Idea Whose Time Has Come	78
Defining a Popular Mandate Through the First World Vote: Global Human Referendum	78
Workshop 2	78
From Mongolia to Qatar: The Path to Democracy	78
Workshop 3	79
Global Governance of the Internet	79
Workshop 4	79
Building Local and Global Democracy: Innovative Experiences in Citizen Engagement	79
Workshop 5	79
Creative Proposals for Democratizing the IMF and World Bank	79
Workshop 6	80
Self-Regulation: Learning Across the TNC and NGO Sectors	80
Workshop 7	80
The Millenium Review and the MDGs: Opportunity for Impact	80
Workshop 8	80
Generating Citizen Activism Toward Global Democracy	80
Workshop 9	81
The World Corporation Registry	81
Shaping the Trade Negotiating Agenda	81
Only the Little Pay Taxes: Regulating the Offshore Shadow Economy	81
Workshop 10	81
Civil Society's Role vis-à-vis the G8	81
Global CS Platforms: Challenges and Opportunities	81
Civil Society and the L20: Creating Democratic Spaces in New Global Governance Forums	82
Workshop 11	82
Civil Society and International Organizations: Strategies for Promoting Democracy .	82
Getting it Wrong on the Security Council Reform	82
Workshop 12	83
Three out of the four presentations below were developed as case studies for the Carold Institute's Building Local and Global Democracy project; the discussions in this workshop were continued from those arising in Workshop 4	83
Équiterre : From Individualism to Personal and Political Activism	83
Capacity Building in Kitamaat	83
Adaptive Leadership, Social Networks and Civic Change	83
The Democratization of Knowledge: Lessons on Community–University Research Practices in Social Economy Initiatives	83
Workshop 13	84

Beyond Watchdog: New Civil Society Strategies for Holding Government Accountable	84
Deliberative Governance: Models and Institutional Reform	84
African Civil Society Engaging with NEPAD, the MDGs, and Multilateral Institutions	84
Workshop 14.....	84
The Charter of Human Responsibilities: Implementation Strategies.....	84
Workshop 15.....	85
The democratic regulation of global governance (La régulation démocratique à l'épreuve de la gouvernance mondiale)	85
Workshop 16.....	85
Global Accountability: The Need for Civil Society Organizations to Lead by Example	85
Workshop 17.....	85
Beyond the Security Council Reform.....	85
Part IV: Closing Plenary	86
Creating a solid foundation.....	86
Democracy at all levels.....	86
Practical steps at home.....	87
Appendix: Acronyms	88
Donors	89