

PART II: WOMEN AND FEMINISM

Feminist internationalists, The Hague, c. 1990. From the left: Anissa Helie (Algeria/France), onetime coordinator, Women Living Under Muslim Laws, now a feminist academic in the USA; Nira Yuval-Davis (Israel/UK), feminist academic theorist and activist on international women's issues; Gina Vargas (Peru), feminist writer/activist, a founder of Flora Tristán Women's Centre, Lima, Coordinator of Latin American-Caribbean women's NGOs, World Conference on Women, Beijing 1995, now an International Council member of the World Social Forum.
Photo: Author.